

Northampton Local Heritage Day

Come and see some of the wonderful images of Carnivals in Northamptonshire collected by the Carnival Archive Project.

Learn about the Northampton Hospital Archive and the thousands of fascinating records they hold about the history of the town.

Find out about the work of local history groups such as the Far Cotton History Society and Northampton Heritage Hunters, and how you can get involved.

Plus there'll be a chance to buy some great books and publications on various aspects of Northampton's history, and a talk by Higginson Troupe member George Twiselton on the history of Northampton Carnival at 12 noon.

Saturday 6th of April, 2013

11am to 3pm

The Shoe Lounge, Northampton Museum and Art Gallery, Guildhall Road, Northampton, NN1 1DP
